

Activity 90

Spiritual Development:

Values Curtain

To discuss a variety of values and virtues.

You will need – strips of paper in a variety of colours, a stapler, selotape and scissors.

Activity – Firstly cut strips of paper in as many different colours as you can. Decide which colour is going to represent each value, virtue or quality e.g.

- |                       |                              |
|-----------------------|------------------------------|
| * red – love          | * white – peace              |
| * light blue – trust  | * orange - respect           |
| * light green – hope  | * pink – listening to others |
| * dark green – wisdom | * dark blue - friendship     |
| * purple – compassion | * lilac - forgiveness        |
| * yellow – happiness  | * silver – kindness          |
| * gold – perseverance | * maroon – motivation etc.   |

Take the coloured strips and make several chains in each of the colours and hang them to make a curtain. You can add words and captions and staple them onto your values curtain. Discuss the value/virtue with a partner as you move through different colours of the curtain. How does that value impact on your daily life? Think of a situation when you have used that value. How important is that value/virtue to you?
